

PRESS RELEASE

The chimes shopping centre makes donation to local charities

EMBARGOED UNTIL 09.00 Friday 31st August 2007

The Chimes Shopping Centre, Uxbridge has been inundated with applications for its charity donation scheme which looked to donate £10,000 to a range of local charities for 2007.

The Chimes received applications for funding from schools, youth clubs and registered organisations based in Hillingdon, South Buckinghamshire and Ealing.

Fifteen local causes benefited from funding ranging from £250 - £750.

Charities that received charity funding included;

Hillingdon Cherubs, Breakspear Nursery & Infant School, Dovetail Community Outreach (U-Can Ask Angels), Hillingdon Outdoor Activities Centre, Harmondsworth Primary School, Special Needs Action for Careers, Iver Nature Study Centre, Communicare Counselling Service, Duke Of Edinburgh Award – Gold Group, Cranford Community Womens Project

The Salvation Army, Bishop Winnington School, Field End Junior School, Youth Speaks, Fasnidge Trust (Christmas Hampers for the Elderly).

Marketing Manager, Michelle Moffitt, said “The Chimes is a local shopping centre with a very loyal customer base so we are happy to help these organisations and people within the community. We know that the money donated will be welcomed and will certainly help continue with the good work these organisations do on a daily basis to help people in the community from all walks of life.

ends.